The All India Trade Union Congress (AITUC) and the United Trade Union Congress (UTUC) have agreed to cooperate with each other. Mass demonstrations of workers will be organized. Agitation will be carried on for a strike in the Bombay textile mills and in the Dunlop rubber factory in West Bengal, and in the Ichapore gun factory. The two groups will try to revive their hold over the workers in railways, Post and Telegraph Department, in Calcutta Tramways and Electricity Corporations. They, along with the Communists, will also exploit the increasing economic crisis in Calcutta. This crisis is resulting from a scarcity of foodstuffs and the retrenchment in government offices and factories.
